

Frank Foster Obedience Seminar

“Building Skills for Better Heeling”

Hosted by the Stone City Kennel Club

13606 Laraway Road, New Lenox, IL 60451 ~ www.sckc.us

Saturday – May 1st, 2010

9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Registration @ 8:30 a.m.

Building Skills for Better Heeling will emphasize attention, footwork, body movement, fronts and finishes. This seminar is for the handler who wants to improve his/her heeling scores. Frank presents this seminar in a fun and relaxed atmosphere – allowing plenty of “Working” time on the floor and time for everyone’s questions.

About Frank:

Frank has over 42 years of experience in training and showing dogs. His training facility in Antioch, Illinois – “Foster’s Training Center”, has been in operation for over 17 years. He conducts both pet and competitive classes and also private lessons. Prior to opening his own school he was the Director of Training for North Shore Dog Training Club. He and his OTCH dog “Finney” achieved their success in the IL, IN, WI, MO area shows. He is currently showing his new dog “Rio”.

Seminar Will Focus On:

- Waking up our dog’s feet
- Good sits, starts and halts
- Building strong attention
- Getting our turns together
- Backing our dogs for body control and alignment
- Developing fronts and finishes
- Teaching sensitivity to relative positions
- Challenging and strengthening heel work
